Dear Mr. Amory:

As one of the trustees of the CED, I want to express my appreciation for the splendid talk you gave us the other day. It was clear, well balanced, forthright, and well delivered. Only one of the economists and Mr. Bolen came close to your presentation for its content and delivery.

It is encouraging indeed to know that important activities are in the hands of people with the obvious capability and caliber of you and Mr. Bolen; and I certainly hope that you will both continue to serve under the new Administration.

Sincerely yours,

Marvin Bower
